

Here's a job opportunity with a difference - where attitude is more important than experience.

Meet Pete: Pete is an awesome guy with a wicked sense of humour. He is 33 and lives in his own house in East Marden, West Sussex. He likes going to the pub with his mates, listening to music, swimming - and visiting his second home in the South of France.

His new year's resolutions are to move house, be healthier and find a girlfriend. Because he was in a serious car accident and now uses a wheelchair, he is going to need some support to achieve all these things. Your help could make a massive difference to his life - while opening up a new career for you.

As well as these exciting things, Pete also needs support with routine household activities, like cooking, cleaning and shopping and also reminding him to take his medication. These things have to happen but they should not stop him enjoying life and doing the things he wants to do.

What's Pete looking for in you? Pete is looking for someone who has a positive attitude to life and work. There is also a serious side to the job; you will need to be able to work as part of a team and follow agreed policies in supporting Pete and responding to his behaviour, which can be difficult at times. You also need to be able to keep good records.

All the training and support you need: Choice Support is the national charity which supports Pete. Don't worry if you have not done this type of work before, we provide excellent training and you will have the support of your manager and colleagues. It is your attitude that is more important than any qualifications or experience.

Getting out and staying in: You will need to be a car driver and willing to drive Pete in his car. You will also need to be available to work flexible shifts around Pete's activities, including sleep-in shifts (and perhaps the occasional holiday in Provence or elsewhere).

The next step: If you think that you could help Pete to live the life he wants to lead, please complete the application form and e-mail it to:

Malcolm.wilson@choicesupport.org.uk or for an informal discussion, please call Malcolm Wilson on 02392 499485.
